

in

Kent Keirsey

Chief Legal Officer

Kent oversees the company's legal, risk and compliance functions. Prior to co-founding Collective Health, Kent served in 101st Airborne Division and as an Instructor at the US Army Ranger School. He brings over a decade of experience training and leading teams that operate in high risk and heavily regulated environments.

After leaving active military service, Kent completed his dual JD and MBA degrees at Stanford University. Upon graduating from Stanford, Kent worked as an attorney in the Corporate Transactions Group at Gunderson Dettmer, a leading Silicon Valley-based law firm and co-founded the Endeavor Team Challenge, a 36-hour adventure race that takes place every Fall in the Sierra Nevada mountains.

Collective Health®